IN FOREIGN PORTS

Tuesday, March 23.

SYDNEY—Arrived Mar. 21: S. S. Moana, hence Mar. 6.

SAN FRANCISCO—Arrived Mar. 23: S. S. China, 9 a. m., hence Mar. 16.

HILO—Sailed Mar. 21: S. S. Arizona, for New York via Magellan.

YOKOHAMA—Sailed Mar. 20: S. S. Choyo, for Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO—Arrived Mar. 23: S. S. Mexican, from Salina Cruz.

SAN FRANCISCO—Arrived Mar. 23: S. S. Defender, from Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO—Sailed Mar. 22: S. S. Imperial, for Honolulu.

ELIZABETH—Sailed Mar. 20: S. S. Imperial, for Honolulu.

Others came by the Mauna Loa, and overland.

On Tuesday will have occurred the musical concert of the Girls' School under the direction of their music teacher, Miss Clark, assisted by Miss Horner. It is sure to have been a success.

The Hawaiian Church here, with the co-operation of the Union Church, and many generous persons, has made extensive preparations for the entertainment of the conference. Between $250 and $300 have been raised to defray expenses. Breakfasts, dinners and suppers will be served to all delegates in a hall that has been built on the church grounds. As there will be surprise C. E. meetings and evening sessions, this will be a great feature, for none need return home for meals.

Among other improvements, the Hawaiian Church has been fitted up with angle lamps, at an expense of over $50. There will be good speaking and singing, and the sessions will be of interest to the public, who are cordially invited to attend.

Rev. William Kamau of Pahoa is moderator of the convention, and David Alawa secretary. Between fifty and sixty delegates are expected. The thirty-three churches on the island are each entitled to two delegates (one the Sunday school superintendent) besides its minister; but in some cases the minister is also Sunday school superintendent and delegate.

It is not easy to provide for so many in a small community. Mrs. McDougall, chairman, and the members of the entertainment committee, have worked hard and been generously backed by the people of Kohala. One person gave all the pot; another a beef, and so on.

We should, of course, be hopeless of condensing a report of the acres of good things in the convention in our little turnip-patch of a paper, so we advise our readers to attend as much as possible, and get hand-picked fruits. Canned convention is poor stuff, anyway.

There are sunrise Christian Endeavor meetings, and forenoon, afternoon, and evening sessions. One must be desperately hard to please who is not suited somewhere. They say the big guns will fire in the evenings.

Oh, yes! We forgot the luau.

COOK'S TOURIST PARTY IS COMING THIS WAY

The Chiyo Maru, when she arrives here from the Orient on the 29th, will have a large party of Cook's tourists on board, completing a journey around the world. Though no arrangements have been made for a stopover here the Promotion Committee will be on hand with a goodly collection of Honolulu literature, that the visitors may make the best of their time while their ship is in harbor.

Several other tourist parties will arrive here in the near future, and Secretary Wood of the Promotion Committee has received word that the most of them will make a stopover at this port.

A large amount of mail was sent away on the Manchuria today. The Promotion Committee being forced to work to capacity in order to supply the demand for Hawaiian literature, which came from the mainland.

DEADLOCK OVER

It is openly stated in the Senate chamber that the Senators will not concede from their position. The Republican House members say they will not accept the amendment, so there you are. Even if the House should concur in the Senate amendment, the Governor would not sign the bill—so there you are again.

This probably means that in order to get their pay for the work they did, the Supervisors' appointees must institute individual suits against the County to recover.
